

WORK, FAMILIES, AND PUBLIC POLICY - SPRING 2008

A Biweekly Brown Bag Seminar Series on topics relating to Labor, Households, Health Care, Law, and Social Welfare

Faculty, staff, and graduate students from Washington University are invited to participate.

Time: 12:00-1:00 PM, discussion to 1:30 p.m.

Place: Eliot Hall, Room 300, Washington University

January 14:

Daniel Elfenbein, Washington University, "Entrepreneurial Spawning among Scientists and Engineers: Stars, Slugs, and Small Firms."

January 28:

Karen Norberg, Washington University and National Bureau of Economic Research, "Minimum Drinking Age Laws and Long-Term Outcomes."

February 11:

Barry Chiswick, University of Illinois at Chicago, "Why is the Payoff to Schooling Lower for Immigrants?"

February 25:

Nancy Folbre, University of Massachusetts, "People, Property, and Patriarchy: The Evolution of Rights over Human Capital." [\[view paper\]](#)

March 17:

Kerwin Charles, University of Chicago, "Prejudice and the Economics of Discrimination."

March 31:

Elizabeth Emens, Columbia Law School, "Intimate Discrimination.?" [\[view paper\]](#)

April 14:

Sebastian Galiani, Washington University, "The Effects of Land Titling on Household Dynamics."

For more information, contact:

Bob Pollak, at (314) 935-4918, email: pollak@wustl.edu or Michael Sherraden, at (314) 935-6691, email: sherrad@wustl.edu

Download papers at <http://www.olin.wustl.edu/links/>, Academic Seminars, if available.

For additional information, please contact:

Linda McClain, Assistant Director, Center for Interdisciplinary Studies

By phone: 314.935.7988

By fax: 314.935.7961

Email: lmclain@wulaw.wustl.edu

